FRED GORE INSTANTLY

log at the A. L. & T. logging camp Friday at about noon, and instantly killed.

He was hooking logs for the steam loader when the hook slipped off the log as it was swung in the air. Gore was underneath it and was unable to get out of the way when he saw i slip. The log struck him across the back, crushing his chest, causing death instantly. He was a married man with three small children. They were visiting a a ranch on Anderson Mesa when the accident happened, but have a hom in Flagstaff.

Gore was highly thought of by al the men and his sudden death cant gloom over the entire camp.

In the absence of Judge Harring ton, Judge F. O. Twitty, of Williams was called in to hold an inquest Fri day afternoon. The verdict of the jury was accidental death.

Gore has a mother living in Tu cumcari, N. M., and has made hi home in Flagstaff for about tw years. Mrs. Gore and children wer visiting an uncle, Mr. Weems, at th time of the accident.

The funeral services were held of Sunday afternoon and were attende by the greater part of the employes of the camp, which was shut down Sat urday.

FLAGSTAFF HOTEL CO. CAN NOW SELL STOCK

The Flagstaff Hotel Company re ceived word yesterday that they ha been granted the privilege of selling stock by the state corporation commission, and A. W. Bikker, the authorized fiscal agent, will commence the work of getting funds together to day, for the big enterprise.

He has a good sized list who hav already agreed to take stock among the business men locally, and afte closing up the business here will g east among larger investors.

Bikker Acquires More Property.

A. W. Bikker, the insurance mar is acquiring a reputation as the rapid fire buyer and seller of Flagstaff rea estate. Since disposing of a portio of his half block to Mrs. W. H. Power he has purchased the south half o the block from Frank Payne. He proposes to clear it of all small building and improve it by putting down co ment walks connecting up with th rest of his property on the Agass street side.

He figures that with the new hote going up across the street and th paving being done, that this section of the town will eventually be one of the most important business centers

When the property owners take a interest, as they seem to be doing now, thousands of dollars in valu can be added to the value of property once known as the bug hole center built up of shacks, barns and corrals Watch it grow.

Greatly Enjoy Weeks Spent Here.

John L. Munds, Mrs. Senator Mund and family, who have been camping at Lake Mary since returning from the Moqui snake dance, came in from the lake Friday. Mrs. Munds left fo Seligman by train with the children and Mr. Munds left Saturday in hi

Mr. Munds is an ex-sheriff of Yava pai county and well known all ove Arizona, especially in the norther part, where he has been in the cattle and sheep business, and now has turned to mining in the Oatman dis trict. In speaking of the mont spent here camping, he says: "W had the most enjoyable time of ou lives and know of no better place t spend a summer."

Con Fredericks Breaks an Arm.

Con Fredericks had his shoulde dislocated and his arm broken jus below the elbow last Friday. He wa helping the cow punchers on the rock mesa near Lake Mary and took th rope after an animal had been roped He took a snub around his saddle hor and the critter was strong enough t pull the saddle off his horse, throw ing him among the rocks. The shoul der dislocation is the most severe of his injuries and his arm is badl swollen. The broken arm will hes up nicely without much trouble.

Latest reports from Coconino county give it to Hunt without question. The majority has not as yet been figured out, and some precincts had not come in late yesterday.

Local Contests Among the Democrats. Harry Embach won the contest handily over Mercer Hemperly for representative.

For supervisors, it seems certain that the two democratic candidates will be Fred Holden of Williams and Chas. Woolfolk of Flagstaff.

For justice of the peace, with four candidates in the field, M. A. Murphy won by a good plurality.

Chas. A. Jones, democratic candidate for county attorney, won easily over F. M. Gold, of Williams.

Republican Contests.

C. B. Wilson won the nomination over Crable by a good majority, for county attorney.

Mrs. Bozena Allen will be the republican candidate for county school superintendent, having defeated Mrs. Eva Marshall.

The "outs" in the democratic party who attempted to get in were kept this year. It looks as though the Hunt machine had firmly established itself in the saddle, and there is little hope of the other faction of the democracy ousting it.

On the republican state ticket there were but two contests. One between Kibbey and Stillwell for the U. The republicans are taking a great States senators and swept the plate clean of democratic congressmen, also electing a republican governor by some 15,000 majority.

(Special to Coconino Sun.) Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 13, '16.

Impossible to even give approximately total figures of primary, but it is certain that Governor Hunt was renominated by no tless than 5,000. Other successful democrats were tary of state, Case for state superintendent of schools, Betts for corporation commission, Bolin for mine inspector, and Howe for the tax commission

Kibbey was nominated by the republicans for the senate and probably Eads for representative. The socalled court house ring in this county was almost wiped out. All against whom fights have been directed are

GETS HEAVY PENALTY FOR USING PISTOL

El Morto Escota was assessed a $200 fine or 200 days in jail for pegging away with his six-shooter within the city limits last Sunday night and disturbing the neighborhood.

Much promiscuous shooting of the kind has been going on in the neighborhood of the Mexican dance hall during the night, and a watch had been set to discover the individual doing it. Deputy Sheriff Tom Phelan, who is special game warden for that vicinity on dance nights, captured Escota with the goods on him, including the shells.

Judge Layton figured that it was high time that such a dangerous pastime should be permanently interrupted, and handed out the maximum dose for the offense. Escota had more time than money and took the time.

Valley Rancher Would Have

Preferred Flood More Scattered Captain George Alkire came up from his ranch at Glendale yesterday morning to spend a few days with his family. Capt. Alkire says the recent floods in the valley did considerable damage, but not as much as was reported. The downpour was beneficial in a great many ways to the valley ranchers, regardless of the damage to ditches, for there had been little or no rain all summer to freshen up things generally. While the lack of the usual summer rains will reduce the general output of the ranches some 25 per cent, prices are excepyear. He will return tomorrow in order to be there in time to vote this fall.

Will Organize a New Orchestra.

Miss Miriam Lightburne returned to Flagstaff this week from Phoenix and will organize a violin and piano class. She recently returned from the past year studying music, and after a short visit to her home in Phoe-Wm. Grant cleaned the field for nix, decided to again return to Flagstaff and again take up the work she left some time ago, and will also organize an orchestra. She made a splendid success of the former mixed
